Bobrick's Fino Collection Earns Honorable Mention in The Architect's Newspaper's 2026 Best of Products Awards

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Sept. 30, 2026 — Bobrick is pleased to announce that its Fino Collection of coordinated washroom accessories has received an honorable mention in The Architect's Newspaper's 2026 Best of Products Awards. The recognition celebrates the collection's cohesive design, durability and versatility in creating premium commercial washroom environments.

The Fino Collection brings together a comprehensive range of washroom faucets, soap dispensers, and accessories in a unified design language. Defined by clean, geometric lines and seam-welded construction, the collection allows architects and designers to create a coordinated aesthetic throughout the washroom, from the vanity to the cubicle.

Designed to balance aesthetics with everyday performance, Fino products are available in polished chrome, brushed nickel, brushed brass, polished graphite, and matte black finishes. The collection spans faucets, soap dispensers, hand dryers, towel dispensers, waste receptacles, toilet tissue dispensers, grab bars, and other essential washroom accessories, offering a cohesive solution for hospitality, workplace, transportation, and other commercial environments.

The collection also supports accessibility and operational efficiency. ADA/DDA-compliant grab bars, hand dryers and towel dispensers help address accessibility requirements, while features such as concealed hardware, removable waste containers, intuitive refill systems, and modular configurations simplify installation and ongoing maintenance. Backed by a five-year warranty, the Fino Collection reflects Bobrick's commitment to durable, thoughtfully designed washroom solutions.

The Architect's Newspaper's annual Best of Products Awards honors the innovative designs that make up the built environment. The 2026 recognition adds to the Fino Collection's growing record of industry accolades.
